

Strothman Technology Solutions

Operating successfully in today's business world requires efficient technology solutions. Strothman & Company recognizes that both large and small businesses are being faced with the daunting task of improving or implementing technology. Our Strothman Technology Solutions division can assist you in making this complex and challenging task streamlined, reliable, cost-effective and productive.

Operational Management

- Business continuity planning review
- Outsourced CIO
- Operational assessment
- Accounting software analysis, selection and implementation
- Project management
- Quality assurance reviews
- Implementation reviews

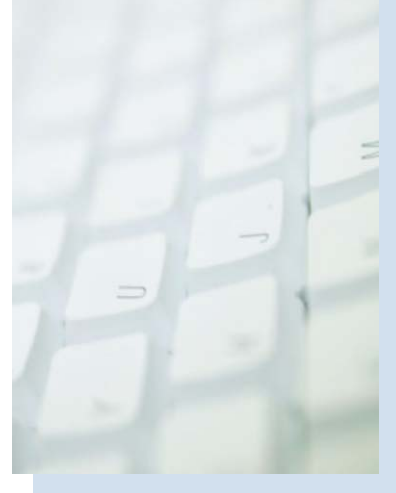

Technology Services

- System selection and implementation
- Network design and implementation
- System design and implementation
- System virtualization of software
- TechCheckSM technology assessment

Internal Controls

- System security assessment
- Attack and penetration assessment
- Website vulnerability assessment
- Wireless security assessment
- Service auditor reporting (SAS 70)
- Agreed-upon procedures
- FFIEC reviews (banking)
- Internal technology audit
- Sarbanes Oxley compliance assistance

Strothman Technology Solutions, a division of Strothman & Company, offers Strategy, Infrastructure, Security/Risk Management, Special Assurance Services and Project Management. These solutions allow your business to benefit from the promise that technology can achieve, and protects you from the risks that technology presents. Our division of specialists understands the unique needs of your business and will assist you in utilizing technology strategically, securely and effectively.

For more information contact

Brian Jackson
MCSE, MCITPEA, CCNA, CISA
bjackson@strothman.com